

Heather & Dustin

WEDDING: February 18, 2012 PHOTOGRAPHER: The R2 Studio

CEREMONY & RECEPTION: Boojum Tree Hidden Gardens, Phoenix HONEYMOON: San Diego, California

Music has always been a passion for both Heather Westcott and Dustin Boston. On their first date, the pair spent hours chatting about their favorite bands, and over the course of their courtship they attended countless concerts and scoped out a wide variety of local and touring talent. That passion carried right over into their wedding day theme. From the customized concert-ticket wedding invitations to the vintage records that served as table numbers, everything about the wedding revolved around their love of music. Guests even went home with custom guitar-pick wedding favors to commemorate the evening.
